

Children's Choir Director

Ankeny First United Methodist Church is seeking a children's choir director excited about sharing the love of Christ with children through music and helping them grow in their understanding of the faith. This position works with the directors of worship, pastors, and other church leaders to develop a dynamic, inviting weekly children's music ministry. This position requires weekly rehearsals September through May as well as some Sundays. Send resume and cover letter to amity.wagner@ankenyfirst.org.
