Because there may be many people interested or in need of trip scholarships, please help us by answering the following questions. Please know your answers are not graded, and we will do our best to offer as many scholarships or partial scholarships as we can.

Describe your interest or calling toward the Partnership of Hope Trip -

Do you have previous experience on international travel or mission trips?

The Partnership of Hope trip has historically cost participants between $2800-$3400. Most of this cost is airfare. How much, if any, of this trip cost would you be able to contribute toward the total cost. If you are applying for multiple scholarships, please indicate the amount you could contribute per-person.
